Highline Community College offers the Human Services and Chemical Dependency Professional degrees through Weekend College.

- Classes that fit around work and your busy life — Friday evenings, Saturdays and/or Sundays.
- Offered alternating weekends and online.
- Earn your credits at Highline or Seattle Central community colleges.
- Transfer opportunities to local four-year colleges and universities. Talk to Josh Baker for more info.
- Learn more at humanservices.highline.edu.

And, we can help you find funding for school.
